BARONY OF CAERTHE

Greetings and Salutations

to Our fair populace!

We are honored and humbled to have been chosen to be your next Baron and Baroness and are excited to begin the next chapter in the history of this wonderful Barony we call home.

It has already been a busy time with St. Sebastian's and getting ready for Battlemoor. At St. Sebastian's the competition was fun and fierce and we welcome our new Warden, THL Rothin, and Warder, Earl Mika.

At the time of this writing Battlemoor is on the horizon and we look forward to seeing as many of you as we are able and sharing some great times and memories on the fields of battle, in the shade of camp, and around the fires of the night.

Domin and Celestina
Baron and Baroness

A Place at the Table

Greetings Fellow Caerthens, and well met!

How delightful it is to live in such a place of friendliness and helpfulness! It is wonderful to see how we take care of those new to our realm. As Hospitaller, I thank ye all for making this Barony so open and welcoming!

It is my joy to say that "courtesy begins at home" does happen in this place, and often! How nice it is to be greeted with cheer and warmth, whether one be new or old in our 'game.' How lovely it is that mistakes or discourtesies are mostly handled with patience and grace. May we as Caerthe so shine at the various upcoming events with their varying challenges!

May your days be filled with kindnesses and joy!

Lady Ellinor Rose Sanbourne,
Hospitaller, Barony of Caerthe

J. Paul Getty Trust

Many of you may have seen that the J Paul Getty Trust has launched its Open Content Program. Their initial release included 4600 high-resolution scans of works from the Getty Museum in Los Angeles. What this means is that these images can be downloaded and re-used without restriction and without the need to get permission. (As a Chronicler, this is a huge boon! And for you, this is a great re-search tool.)
